

Energy and Infrastructure Associate Attorney

Office: New York

Title: Associate

Practice Group: Energy and Infrastructure

Description:

Schiff Hardin's New York office is seeking an associate with 3 to 6 years of experience (2015 to 2012 JD) for its Energy and Infrastructure group. The ideal candidate should have experience doing a wide range of transactional work (i.e., mergers and acquisitions, development projects, joint ventures, financings, sustainable investing, and restructurings). In addition, experience with major infrastructure projects in the energy and other infrastructure industries is a plus. An aptitude and interest in public speaking and business development as well as an exceptional academic record, drafting skills, negotiating ability, and oral communication skills are required. Some travel is expected with this position. New York bar admission is required.

Our firm has a collegial atmosphere and a transparent management culture. We provide attorneys with opportunities for substantial professional development, responsibility, and long-term success. Our firm ranked #1 among large law firms in Chicago and #20 nationally for associate satisfaction in the 2017 Midlevel Associate Satisfaction survey by The American Lawyer. We also ranked 3rd in law firms of 300 to 600 lawyers for gender diversity on Law360's 2017 Glass Ceiling Report, we were included in the 50 Best Law Firms for Women 2017 by Working Mother/Flextime Lawyers and, for the 8th consecutive year, our firm earned a perfect score on the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) Foundation's 2018 Corporate Equality Index.
